MOTION TO QUASH WRIT OF EXECUTION

COMES NOW, Douglas K. Handshoe, by and through his undersigned counsel of record, and files this his Motion to Quash Writ of Execution heretofore issued in this action by the Circuit Clerk of Stone County, on May 11, 2017, and in support thereof would show unto this Court the following, to-wit:

I.

Defendant and Movant, Douglas K. Handshoe would show that the foreigner judgment obtained by the Plaintiff's against your Defendant/Movant on February 26, 2014 in the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia, Canada, was enrolled by authority of an Order rendered in the Circuit Court of Hancock County, Mississippi on January 3, 2017 by the Honorable Christopher L. Schmidt, Circuit Court Judge; and thereafter the Plaintiffs have attempted but not completed the process of scheduling a judgment debtor examination of your Defendant/Movant upon two different occasions.

II.

Defendant/Movant would show that now Plaintiffs have requested a Writ of Execution issued by the Circuit Clerk of Stone County, Mississippi which is unduly overbroad, ambiguous and lacks specificity as to the specific assets sought to be levied upon by Plaintiffs.

III.

Defendant/Movant would show that there are other, third party owners of the property sought to be levied upon in the Plaintiff/Movants' Writ of Execution.

IV.

Defendant/Movant would further show that there is no authority under Mississippi's Limited Liability Company statutory framework for execution upon Defendant's interest in a limited liability company.

V.

Defendant/Movant would show that all personal property owned by the Defendant/Movant, including the two choses in action described in their writ of execution, have a total aggregate value of under $10,000 and therefore the Defendant/Movant claims that such property is exempt under Mississippi law.

VI.

Defendant/Movant would further show that the Plaintiff has not followed the specific requirements and procedures set forth in either Section 13-3-129 of the Miss. Code of 1972, as amended or Section 13-3-157 of the Miss. Code of 1972, as amended, and further other statutory authority for the service and levying upon Writs of Execution under the laws of the State of Mississippi.

WHEREFORE, the Defendant/Movant, Douglas K. Handshoe requests that this Court upon hearing of his Motion to Quash Writ of Execution, for the aforestated reasons, will quash such Writ of Execution in its present form and assess all costs of these proceedings unto the Plaintiffs, Trout Point Lodge, Ltd., Vaughn Perret and Charles Leary.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED, on this the 17th day of May, A.D., 2017.
